For the Hillwood Fanatic

Do Not Disturb Sign
Marjorie Post always ensured she had ample sleep, installing this sign on all bedroom doors at Hillwood, where they remain today. Made exclusively for Hillwood, the sign features a decorative pattern when closed, and displays the instruction “Do Not Disturb – Resting” when open.

Hillwood Ball Ornament
Add the beauty of Hillwood to your tree with this hand-painted glass ball ornament, decorated with the south façade of the mansion and the Lunar Lawn in a charming winter scene.

Postum
C.W. Post, Marjorie Post’s father, created Postum in 1895 after seeking a healthier alternative to coffee, and the recipe remains the same to this day. This 20th-century household staple is perfect for the Hillwood devotee, nostalgic friends, or curious newcomers.

For the Gardener

A Garden for All Seasons: Marjorie Merriweather Post’s Hillwood
Enter the garden paradise of Marjorie Merriweather Post’s Washington, D.C., estate in the first book on the history and design of the remarkable grounds.
Garden Sign
Mamie Eisenhower, wife of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, gave Marjorie Post a copy of the garden plaque that Eisenhower had designed for the rose garden at the White House in 1958, featuring the fourth stanza of the poem “The Lord God Planned a Garden” by Dorothy Frances Gurney.

Dawn Redwood Tea Towel
This vibrant towel, designed by Nina J. Designs exclusively for Hillwood, is inspired by the four dawn redwood trees at Hillwood.
